Role

- The Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Forum (EDIF) provides a means of raising grassroots EDI issues as well as sharing good practice on EDI across the University. It is intended to further the University’s EDI strategic objective of eliminating unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimization.

Responsibilities

- To act as a consultative and feedback body on equality, diversity and inclusion matters
- To make recommendations to EDISG on how University strategy, policy, process and practice should promote equality and diversity
- To act as a forum of discussion, sharing good practice and experience on equality, diversity and inclusion matters

Membership

The EDIF is open to all staff members to attend. The following are ex officio members:

- Senior Academic Lead for Equality Diversity and Inclusion - Chair
- Equality, Diversity & Inclusion Manager
- Chairs of Faculty and Professional Services EDI Groups
- Equality, Diversity & Inclusion Coordinator - Secretary
- Representatives from all Schools, Institutes and Professional Services Directorates
- Chairs of approved network groups or other relevant special interest groups

In Attendance

As invited

Meeting frequency

The EDIF meets at least three times year.

Reporting Lines

Reports to the Equality Diversity and Inclusion Steering Group via the EDI Senior Academic Lead